Guide and Instructions

A note from kagsy

The purpose of this ritual is to activate your 'powered by moon magic' graphic art merchandise so you can wear/use it as a talisman for self-acceptance, letting go and releasing what no longer serves you. Let's all wear our magic as a badge of honour.

Because it's important to know, no matter, what you powerful (and always will be).

Please note: the following ritual isn't absolutely necessary to activate your 'Powered by Moon Magic' item. I have infused the affirmation spell with the intention to support self-acceptance and release. The ritual simply supports and strengthens your intention every time you wear/use it.

The choice is yours!

Love,
Kagsy_x

Material List

What you'll need to activate your item

A Quiet Space
(to relax and focus in)

Your 'Powered by Moon Magic' Merchandise
(to activate as your tailsman and reminder)

A White Candle
(A gold candle is also a good option if you don't have white)

Bowl of Water (to Reflect the Candlelight or Moonlight)
(optional; used for reflection. If you collect moon water, than even better!)

Moonstone Crystal (Or any you feel is fitting)
(optional; works best with fabric based items, but you can adapt the following process to suit)

Activation Steps

1 PREPARE YOUR SPACE

- Choose a peaceful time in the evening or night-time.
- If the weather is pleasant, it's better to sit outside under the open sky.
- If indoors, sit near a window where you can see the night sky — a clear night is best, if possible.
- Light your white (or gold) candle and place your merchandise in front of you.
- If using a bowl of water, position it to catch the light from the moon or candle.
- If you're using a crystal, place it near the candle.

2 GET GROUNDED

Take three deep, slow breaths.

Inhale: Feel the moon's soft, radiant energy entering your body.

Hold: Let that energy settle deep within you.

Exhale: Let go of any doubts, fears, or limiting thoughts.

Place your hands over your heart and speak softly or in your mind:

"I open to the wisdom of the moon — constant, eternal, and true. I am safe. I am supported. I release what no longer serves me."

3 SET YOUR INTENTION

Take another deep breath, exhale then speak softly or say inside your mind:

"I activate this item with the energy of the moon and my intention to let go, grow, and shine. May it remind me to trust, release, and remember who I truly am. I am connected to a power greater than myself. I am enough."

4 INFUSE WITH MOON MAGIC

Hold the [item] and visualise a cool, shimmering silver light (like soft moonlight) surrounding your item. Imagine this light flowing into the item, filling it with calm, clarity, and courage.

If you have added a bowl of water to your ritual, then simply gaze into your own reflection, softening your gaze and either just be for a moment, or affirm:

"I am powered by the energy of the moon, I embrace who I am and who I am becoming, I let go of what no longer serves me so I can live life on my terms."

If you are using a crystal as part of the ritual, then gently rub it over the [item] slogan to transfer its energy.

5 SEAL THE SPELL

To seal the affirmation spell, simply say outloud:

"This [item] is now a vessel for moon magic and empowerment. As I wear/use it, I carry the power to release, to trust, and to rise. And so it is."

Now blow out the candle and visualise the spell's energy being released into the universe.

6 USE/WEAR WITH INTENTION

The first time you wear/use your [item] take a moment to repeat this affirmation several times, "You are magical. You are radiant. You are enough."

(feel free create one of your liking, if this doesn't suit).

Or simply just wear it!
